CHAPTER 14 - EXERCISES

EVANGELOS C. ZIOULAS (IT TEACHER)

EXERCISE 1

- Chapter 14 – Activity.12 (p.93)

- Follow your teacher's suggestion and visit a page which provides you the service of making your own web mail account (http://www.yahoo.com)

- Fill your data in the appropriate forms and create your personal email account.

- Try to send a test message to another classmate.

EXERCISE 2

- Chapter 14 – Activity 5 (p. 92)

- In the written communication of the Internet, many times there are special symbols which are used to express some feelings:

:-(:-) :-O

- Visit the following pages and find the meaning of the previous symbols:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Emoticon

http://netlingo.com/smiley.cfm

- Notice how many symbols are used and try to create your own symbols.

- What is the usefulness of such symbols? Does they help or restrict the communication?
